MORE ON THE MADRIGAL DINNER

PAUL LOONEY, director of Shelton's Madrigal dinner planned for December, is looking for students as well as members of the faculty and staff who are interested in being part of the program. If you enjoy singing or if you have other talents such as juggling, cycling, etc. and would like to be involved, contact Looney or Syble Coats at the junior college.

The Madrigal Dinner is a fundraising event sponsored by the Shelton State Foundation with all profits going to the Department of Speech and Fine Arts.

A madrigal dinner celebrates Christmas in the ancient tradition of Merri Olde England. Frequently the lords and ladies performed the music themselves as they sat at dinner in the great Hall. Shelton's Madrigal Dinner will be Tuesday, December 13, at First Methodist Church.
